YOU CAN STOP WHISTLING

You can stop whistling to keep up your courage. You are going to need the energy to keep up with work.

Times are getting better. From many sections of the country comes news of growing impetus in trade and industry. Secretary Davis reports a marked decline in unemployment and a distinct improvement in the condition of agriculture.

April broke all records for the amount of construction started. Contracts awarded in the Central West showed an increase of 20 per cent over April a year ago and 6 per cent over March of this year.

If you have not caught the stride, you will be wise to hurry. The procession is moving forward. Pessimists and malcontents will be left behind or run over.

BLUE GRASS SEED CROP REPORTED HEAVY

According to figures secured from the Blue Grass seed dealers and raisers the crop for this year is the largest that there has been since the year 1912, when the largest amount of seed was gathered in the history of the seed business.

The prices being offered for seed varies. In some sections the dealers are offering a price of $1.80 per bushel for the cured seed, while no price so far is obtainable for seed from the stripper.

The stripping, according to the farmers will begin between the first and the eighth of June, according to the weather. Large tracts have already been disposed of for money consideration in this and adjoining counties, while a number of the county farmers have made arrangements for their seed to be stripped on the shares.

A grand rush is being made for available strippers in every county and all strippers available will be pressed into use, with the old time strippers and all available self-raking strippers already spoken for.

With the amount for money that will be realized from the second payment of the Burley Tobacco Growers Association to the growers and the prospects of a good sum of money being realized from the Blue Grass seed, the farmers, it is predicted, will be in better condition financially than they have been for the past few years.

There is really nothing in going out and getting stewed, like a dish of prunes.

DEATHS

Life Is But A Brief Span, A Debt That All Must Pay

HITE

—Miss Mattie Hite, aged eighty-one, a former resident of this city, died at two o'clock Tuesday morning at the home of her niece, Mrs. Frank W. Shackelford, in Cincinnati, after a short illness due to paralysis and heart trouble. A few days preceding her death Miss Hite was stricken with paralysis, and a second stroke being sustained shortly after, complicated with heart trouble, caused her death.

Miss Hite was a daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. William Hite, Sr., pioneer citizens of Paris, her father having been deputy sheriff of Bourbon county for two terms. At the death of her younger sister, Mrs. O. H. Dudley, many years ago, Miss Hite became a member of their household and was in all that could go to make a home, a true and worthy successor to her sister. She was a sister of John W. Hite, for many years local editor of the old Paris True Kentuckian, then edited by the late Col. John G. Craddock. William O. Hite, for almost a lifetime connected with the Paris fire department, Mrs. W. A. Hill, Sr., and Mrs. Sarah Dudley, of Paris, all of whom preceded her to the grave years ago. Her only surviving sister, Mrs. Charles Rieckel, resides in Cynthia. Between the sisters and brothers there was a living bond of love and mutual helpfulness that was remarkable. About seventeen years ago, Miss Hite went with the family of her niece, Mrs. Frank Shackelford, to Cincinnati, where they have since resided.

In her death there has gone to the other world one of those beautiful spirits which help to make the world a better place to live in. She was as tender and devoted as a mother, a loyal friend, who thought no evil of those with whom she came in contact, and sincerely and devoutly a Christian. Her sympathetic understanding of others won the hearts of old and young alike, and made her passing a very keen sorrow to those near and dear to her.

The body was brought to Paris, Wednesday morning, and taken to the home of her nephew, Wm. W. Dudley, on South Main street. The funeral was held at the Christian church, at two o'clock Wednesday afternoon, with services conducted by the pastor, Rev. W. E. Ellis, who paid a beautiful tribute to the high Christian character and lovely life of Miss Hite. The burial followed in the Paris Cemetery. The pallbearers were George M. Hill, Harry Hite, Carl Foster, Wm. W. Dudley, Earl Shackelford and Will A. Hill.

The sympathy of a host of friends was expressed by the beautiful floral tributes which covered the resting place of the one they loved and who loved flowers. "After the night of weeping cometh the morn; and with the morn those angel faces smile, which we have loved long since and lost a while."

MORELAND

—The body of Mrs. Mary Moreland, who died in New York City, arrived in Paris yesterday morning on the L. & N. train from Cincinnati, at ten o'clock, and was taken to the Paris Cemetery, where the interment took place. Services were conducted at the grave by Rev. W. E. Ellis, pastor of the Paris Christian church. The pallbearers were: H. M. Roseberry, E. F. Prichard, Wm. A. Grimes, June Ford, C. M. Thomas, Richard Butler, Jas. D. McClintock, H. L. Baldwin.

Mrs. Moreland was the widow of John Moreland, a Confederate veteran of Bourbon county, who died several years ago at the Confederate Home in Pewee Valley. She was for several years a resident of Bourbon county, where she engaged in farming with her son. About forty years ago she moved to Philadelphia to reside, her daughter securing a position with the John Wannamaker concern, being afterward advanced to the position of foreign buyer for the house. Later the family moved to New York, where the daughter, Miss Sallie Moreland, engaged in business. At the time of her mother's death, Miss Moreland was in Porto Rico on a business mission, and the bringing of her mother's body to Paris for interment was delayed until her return.

Mrs. Moreland is survived by two daughters, Misses Sallie and Georgia Moreland, both residing in New York; two sons, Alex and Keller Moreland; two nieces, Mrs. Anna Hedges and Mrs. Carrie Fisher, both of Paris; and two nephews, John Hildreth, of Paris, and June Ford, of Lexington.

STANLEY SAYS "LADDIE" AND WARREN MUST MOVE

Lack of leadership was among some of the alleged shortcomings of the Republicans enumerated by Senator Stanley, of Kentucky, in an address before the National Democratic Club, at Washington.

"The day is coming," Mr. Stanley said, "when Laddie Boy and his master will have to seek a new home and the flag of Democracy will fly from ends of Pennsylvania avenue."

The speaker was interrupted frequently by applause. References to Woodrow Wilson brought cheers that lasted for several minutes.

He denounced in bitter terms the traducers of the former President "who prize political advantages more than their country and their honor."

"President Harding," Mr. Stanley declared, "has kept one promise. He said he would not be like Woodrow Wilson—and he has not. Nature looked after that."

A convention of members of Democratic clubs will be held in Washington in September, it was announced.

The Democratic National Committee has made plans for the formation of young men's clubs in all sections of the country. A special department has been established at the national headquarters to develop the plan.

"When Bryan says a man can be in politics without being in office, he is at least touching the one subject upon which he is an authority."

Seems like it is a good deal easier to go broke than get rich.

Contentment is better than great riches because, for one thing, it is scarcer and harder to get.
